Entrance examination dates

The entrance examinations for doctoral degree programmes in English will take place on April 13, 2023 (stage 1) and September 20, 2023 (stage 2) from 9:00 in the office of the chairman of the study programme.

Information about the specific place of the examination will be provided on the <https://is.czu.cz/prihlaska/> portal by March 31, 2023 (stage 1) and September 4, 2023 (stage 2).

If the candidate cannot attend the entrance examination on the specified date, it is possible to conduct the exam online (provided that there is good reason to do so). Information about the date and the form of the online exam will be sent to the e-mail address indicated by the candidate in the application form. To set up a date, the candidate must send a request to phdstudies@fzp.czu.cz by March 31, 2023 (stage 1) and September 4, 2023 (stage 2). For communication with the applicant during the whole admission procedure is strictly used the e-mail address registered in the application only.

Necessary documents

The following documents (in English or in Czech) will be necessary for the admission procedure:

- CV
- proof of completion of the master's degree - Diploma
- a list of grades received in the master's programme (diploma supplement / transcript of records).
- motivation letter (only in English)

The above-mentioned documents should be uploaded in the application documents folder.

Entrance exam procedure and results

The candidates for PhD study choose a topic of their PhD theses listed by the supervisors for the given discipline and apply to them. The topics listed for the academic year 2023/2024 are published on the website of the Faculty of Environmental Sciences.

The entrance exam is a points-awarded interview. The evaluation is based on the candidate's background in the chosen field of study, supported by the approval of the potential supervisor, their ability to work independently (diploma thesis, publications), their awareness of the cost of planned research and funding possibilities, as well as their familiarity with the chosen field of study and the contents of the particular study programme at CZU Prague (max. 20 points). Submitting a motivation letter in English will be necessary to assess the candidate's interest in the study programme.

The candidate also proves adequate English knowledge (max. 10 points). The entrance examination in English can be replaced by a certificate at the B2 level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), which will be sent by e-mail to phdstudies@fzp.czu.cz.

A ranking list based on the number of points (0-30) received by the candidates will be published on the <https://is.czu.cz/prihlaska/> portal.

Admission procedure results and notification of admission

The candidate is admitted to the study programme if they have met all of the specified formal requirements and possess the specified professional qualifications. Formal requirements include, in particular, having attained the specified level of education and submitting the application correctly (complete, paid, submitted). A ranking list of candidates is compiled based on the number of points. The minimum for PhD study acceptance is 20 points. A table with the minimum and maximum number of students admitted on the basis of this ranking list is given in Table 1.

Table 1: Maximum number of students admitted to the English doctoral degree programmes in the academic year 2023/2024.

PROGRAMME	FORM	MAX. No.
Applied and Landscape Ecology	full-time	10
	combined	2
Ecology	full-time	10
	combined	2
Environmental Earth Sciences	full-time	15
	combined	2

Applicants will be notified of the results of the entrance examination through the <https://is.czu.cz/prihlaska/> web site. Following the entrance examination, candidates will be required to provide documents to verify their degree. Once it has been verified, a letter will be sent to the candidate to notify them of the admission dean's decision. The letter will be sent to the contact address given on the application form or the applicant will be asked to collect the letter in person.

Candidates who are graduates of a foreign higher education institution should present an original and submit a copy of:

- passport or residency permit
- proof of completion of higher education in Czech or English, meeting the conditions specified in §48, paragraph 5, letter a) and b) of Act No. 111/1998 Coll., On Higher Education Institutions
- Diploma Supplement or Transcript of Records,
- Nostrification or Evaluation of foreign education within the CZU admission procedure for the Academic Year 2023/2024.

Documents confirming previous education should be submitted no later than five working days before the registration process takes place. The registration for study cannot exceed the admission period which terminates on December 31st, 2023.

Admission to the study programme is determined by the Dean on the basis of entrance examination results and the decision of the Head of the Department. Candidates must be notified of the results no more than 15 days after the admission procedure is completed. Information on the outcome of the admission procedure will be published by April 28, 2023 (stage 1) and October 4, 2023 (stage 2).

The candidate has the right to access the files only after the results have been published. The date and place of the registration are determined by the Dean and published on the faculty webpage and <https://is.czu.cz/prihlaska/> application.

Tuition fee

A tuition fee in the amount of 5000 CZK per academic year is charged for studies in a foreign language. The tuition fee is non-refundable once a student has enrolled for a programme.

This regulation becomes valid and effective upon approval by the Academic Senate of FES.
